

GREAT PLACES, INCREDIBLE BEEF!

Experience South Dakota!

Are you looking for a great beef entrée on your travels as you experience South Dakota this summer and fall? Beef has you covered with this week's "Great Place"! Located in the Southern Black Hills in Hot Springs, SD, Woolly's is a family owned and operated restaurant and coffee bar committed to providing fresh and satisfying food and drinks you'll be sure to love.

Woolly's Grill & Cellar prides itself as being the locals' destination for great cuisine, and are sure to extend that same great service to the many visitors the Black Hills sees each year.

The restaurant's local roots were planted over ten years ago in the coffee business, but they have grown quite a bit from their early barista days. More than just another restaurant, Woolly's truly offers something for everyone. From daily, slow-roasted prime rib to a refreshing and flavorful cranberry pecan salad, they have something on their menu that's sure to satisfy...and yes, BEEF is a local favorite!

Woolly's Grill & Cellar

Hot Springs, SD

Your safety, convenience and of course enjoyment are all at the forefront of the establishment's mind as they do offer seating inside of their restaurant in addition to the Woolly's patio in accordance with CDC recommendations. Woolly's To-Go also remains an option. Give them a call at 605-745-6414 or visit their restaurant www.woollys.com!

